

Emerging Artist Program™

Designing Your Path After High School

This program is designed for juniors and seniors in high school who have a passion for their art and at this stage, need direct and supportive guidance in choosing their next steps. Whether it is choosing to go college and/or into the industry, this program will guide you and your family to choose what is best for you and your optimal health and well-being.

This Program:

- Explores and expands who you are, and what you want and need, through a seven step visioning process
- Teaches you how to own and express your voice, listen to your heart, and choose what is best for you
- Builds confidence, assuredness, and faith in your abilities to choose what is in alignment with your current and future artistic and life vision
- Provides a structured process for managing time and resources to balance work-life-play integration
- Gives direction to align you with your goals and core values through a deliberate creation process
- Teaches you how to communicate and present yourself effectively and efficiently
- Provides invaluable experiences and insight into the reality of performing to determine if/what opportunities are a best fit for you
- Provides you with tools to handle all success and failure
- Provides you with tools for all levels, mental, physical, spiritual, and emotional

Unique Features:

- Have unlimited access to a Certified Professional Coach
- A welcome packet
- A 7 step visioning process including online resources
- Individual and/or group program
- Individual Program: 3 - 6 months
- Group Program: 3 - 6 months
- Strengths assessment
- Quick and efficient daily tools and exercises to live in this reality
- Receive current and cutting edge educational resources
- Access to a network of like minded and hearted individuals

"Gina has supplied me with endless tools to help me live my chosen life."

- Taylor Woodie, University of the Arts, Dance Major

"Working with Gina gave me the confidence to pick the college of my dreams."

- Ariel Goussak, George Mason, Dance Major and Kinesiology Minor

For more information:

www.ginapero.com

gina@ginapero.com

B: 716-508-4462